Hello Samara,
Here you go! I hope this is helpful.

"I participated in Samara's online Suicide Prevention course this fall, and found it to be engaging, insightful, and worth my time and money. Her breadth of knowledge in both therapy and the legal aspects of the trade are broad. I have also taken an ethics class from her which was very insightful. Samara was gracious with her time after the course when I emailed about an ethics question I had. DO take a class from her if you can!"

Kindly,
