Hi!

Sure thing; please see below:

"Dr. Kezele Fritchman's seminar was incredibly helpful. Not only did she provide helpful, intriguing examples of the ethical conundrums and issues of which she presented, she demonstrated a robust knowledge of the intersection between psychology and the law, as well as a genuine appreciation for the unique and complicated ethical situations psychologists frequently face. Additionally, Dr. Kezele Fritchman held true to her promise to consult with seminar-attendees; several months after I attended her seminar, after I unexpectedly encountered a tricky ethical issue, I reached out to Dr. Kezele Fritchman and she immediately made herself available, exploring my concerns and providing guidance to get me started protecting myself. I would definitely recommend!"
