

CLAUDIA KEZELE-BARKER is the developer and trainer of BALANCING LIFE: Training Programs in Business and Personal Skill Development. Her expertise in training includes third-party intervention, stand-up training and facilitation skills. She is a trainer with several years of experience and her programs have been presented to businesses large and small, ranging from 10 to 300 participants. Her training style goes beyond the typical training situations — to a point where specific issues are explored and individual growth can occur. Ms. Kezele-Barker has been the keynote speaker for associations and non-profit organizations. Her training programs have been offered at ten community colleges in the Puget Sound area. She is a trainer for L.H. Bates Executive Seminar Department and is a vocationally certified instructor in management and entrepreneurial skill development. She has had guest appearances on KIRO and KOMO television; she has been the guest speaker on KIRO, KPMA, KING, KLAY and KOMO radio. She is the founder of the N.W. Cottage Industry Assn. for entrepreneurs. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration and is a professional member of the American Society for Training and Development.
