

PRACTICE

Advocacy

Business of Practice

Professional Development Resources

Professional Development

Clinical Notes and News

APA Guidelines for Practitioners

Resources for Early Career Psychologists

State Licensure

Self-care Resources

Home > Practice > Professional Development Resources >

APA Guidelines for Practitioners

APA has approved a variety of practice guidelines and related criteria as APA policy in such areas as multicultural practice, child custody evaluations, and treatment of gay, lesbian and bisexual clients. These guidelines are intended to educate practitioners and provide recommendations about professional conduct. As such, they are useful tools for psychologists in practice to develop

APA (

The Br
has ov
has m develc

PRACT

Key A

▪ APA's
with